COLLECTION NOTE

This collection was created by Sue Masek as part of a cultural planning grant from the Kentucky Folklife Program to finish Franklin County, Kentucky's cultural planning process and begin implementation of said plan. Included is information about folklife in Franklin County, topics already researched, and topics that need further exploration. The project summary is divided into three sections. The first contains a list of text and audio sources that includes oral histories and other folklife material. The second is a list of folk artists that Masek was unable to interview but have the potential to be useful. The final section is a cultural plan developed by Masek based on her observations and the interviews she conducted. The collection also includes interviews conducted by Elizabeth Ann Buddle in 1995.
